Rev. 8:1-5
 1. At the time he had opened the first seal, the four angels were bound at the four corners of the earth. And when the fifth seal was opened, the souls of the martyrs who had been slain for the word of God and for the witness they had borne, cried out, saying, "How long, O Lord, and how long will it be before you will judge and avenge our blood on those who have slain us?"

Rev. 11:15-19
 15. And the seventh angel sounded, and there was a great voice from the temple, saying to the kings of the earth, "Behold, the hour has come for you to worship the Lord, and of his Chalice, and he shall reign for ever and ever."
 16. And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen his tabernacle. And there were lightnings, and voices, and trumpets, and earthquakes, and hail.

Rev. 16:17-21
 17. And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the sea, and there came a great voice out of the temple of God, saying to the seven angels, "Pour now some upon the earth."
 18. And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings, and an earthquake, and an hail of fire.
 19. And there fell upon men a great hail of fire, and brimstone, every man which touched was killed. And the voice of the trumpet which the seventh angel sounded, was heard, saying, "The kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ is come."
 20. And the voice of the trumpet which the seventh angel sounded, was heard, saying, "The kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ is come."
 21. And the voice of the trumpet which the seventh angel sounded, was heard, saying, "The kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ is come."
